Foreign Intelligence.

PARIS, September 17.

Yesterday the Directory sent a message to the Council of 500, in which it is said,

"The activity and boldness, citizen representatives, of the royal conspirators, becomes alarming; the directory watches with redoubled vigilance; the streams of bribery and seduction flow through all the parts of the republic. In Paris, citizen representatives, was already fabricated the royal proclamation, which exhorted Frenchmen to the restoration of the throne and power of Louis XVIII. In Paris these monarchial circular letters know their origin, they are intended as forerunners of royal dignity; pitricide presses have distributed many thro' the departments, and this very moment many thousands of them are completed. The directory ordered these proclamations to be seized, of which a specimen is here presented. All those who are concerned in this work are in the hands of justice; their sentence awaits them; their guilt, does it not exceed that of others? May not such a proceeding be called the murder of the republic? Ought they not to be delivered up to the military commission;" This message was referred to a committee of five members.

The persons who in conformity to the above message, were apprehended and confined in the Temple, are the printer Lottie, Brothers Desire, Dor and his wife—Two proclamations were found with them; one of the Prince de Conde, an address to the conscripts; and 4000 copies of an address to the French soldiery.

Our prints say, that the military commission to which the directory has delivered the royal printers (as stated in the above message) may finally become the revolutionary tribunals. "The misuse of military commissions has been the downfall of James the Second in England—in France, Juries ought to decide."

A Courier from Berlin has arrived here; according to our public prints here, a good understanding continues to exist between Prussia and France.

Since the resignation of Bernadotte, minister of war, requests have been made by Marchand (formerly regulator of the Jacobin Club) Chaudien, Raisson, and many other Jacobins, to be dismissed from their several offices.

The dismissed minister of war, Bernadotte, made use, in one of his last proclamations which he made to the army, of the following sentence, "I long for the arrival of that moment, which may bring me into your bosom again,"—in consequence of which the directory resolved on the 14th "that the resignation of Berdanotte, minister of war, be accepted." In a letter therefore directed to him on that occasion, it was notified to him, that it would be deemed a great degree of satisfaction, if during his stay in Paris, he would meet the directory for the purpose of concerting the most salutary measures, respecting the command which they had decreed to him: hereupon general Berdanette wrote the directory on the 15th inst. the following letter:

Citizens Directors.

"This instant I received your decree of yesterday, and the conclusive letter accompanying the same. You accept a resignation which I did not intend to make. Deeply impressed with the importance of the measures adopted for the support of the war department, I wished to be extricated from the certain consequent difficulties. This no doubt has caused your resolve to send me back to the army again. The moment at which I am ready to give you a statement of my administration up to the 22d inst. you are pleased to announce to me that you have appointed me to a command. I leave it for you to judge, whether, after an interrupted series of twenty years fatigue and labour, I have deserved a pension. I declare to you without hesitation that I now stand in need of that as well as of a retired life."

Yesterday it was reported that Quinette minister of the interior, had resigned; the office devolved upon Fouche, (minister of police) and commissary Maire was appointed to the office of minister of police in the room of Fouche.

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.

ON Thursday, 22d October, deserted from the encampment, near Bristol, Pennsylvania, HENRY WEST, an enlisted Musician, belonging to the company of Captain Matthew Henry of the tenth regiment of United States Infantry. He was 26 years of age, 5 feet 7 inches high, grey eyes, fair complexion, born in the county of Tyrone, Ireland, he is a little stoop shouldered and speaks in a low tone of voice.

ALSO,

Deserted from the company of captain Hugh Brady, on Saturday, 26th October, four privates, JOHN DENNIS, aged 34, 5 feet 8 inches high, born in New York, grey eyes, brown hair, brown complexion, was much addicted to liquor, and when intoxicated very talkative. SOLOMON SMITH, aged 37, 5 feet 7 inches high, born in New-York, grey eyes, brown hair, fair complexion, a notorious offender, this being his third desertion. SIMEON DUN, aged 21 years, and 6 months, 5 feet 5 inches high, born in New-Jersey, grey eyes, fair hair, brown complexion.

CHARLES Mc. LEY, aged 26, 5 feet 6 inches high, born in Ireland, grey eyes, black hair, dark complexion—he is supposed to be in Norristown, or its neighbourhood—it is not known what clothing they had when they deserted; but the probability is that they have changed their military habits.

Whoever shall take up the above deserters and lodge them in any jail so that their officers may get them again, or shall deliver them to the subscriber at his quarters in Filbert, between Ninth and Tenth streets, shall receive the above reward and for either of them a proportionate reward of ten dollars and all reasonable expences.

PHILADELPHIA,
FRIDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 6.

Juſtum et tenacem propoſiti virum,
Non civium ardor prava jubentium,
Non vultus inſtantis tyranni,
Mente quatit ſolida.

The ſanſculotte Prince, in the Journal des Hommes Libres, of the 4th September, ſays, that the King of Pruſſia is determined to furniſh his quintuple contingent, in men, to the army of Italy....The ſanſculotte Prince has told a lie. In the ſame journal, ſame date, it is ſaid, that the ſignal for reaction had gone forth from the mouth of Sieyes, that they know his attachment to monarchical principles, which he has never diſavowed, that if he perſiſts in his royal theory, as he has publicly aſſured us, he may be able to ſubject us to a counter-revolution, after his own faſhion. The Journal des Hommes Libres, concludes by comparing Sieyes to Carnot, and by menacing him with an 18 fructidor, or at leaſt with a 30 prairial.

[Ami des Loix, Sept. 5.

The Ami des Loix (Paris journal) of September 5, contains an account of a victory gained by the army of the Danube, over the Archduke Charles, on the 28th thermidor, at night, during a violent ſtorm: The Auſtrians loſt fifteen thouſand men, and the ſurvivors deſerted in great numbers, the reſt being purſued to the lake of Lakin.

In the courſe of the domiciliary viſits ordered by the central adminiſtration of the lower Rhine, there were ſeized many church ornaments, which a few days before had been ſold as national moveables; thus theſe kind of effects, daily ſeized and ſold, afford to the public treaſury, a product as inexhauſtible, as it is novel.

[There are other characteriſtics pertaining to this kind of income, beſides its novelty and inexhauſtibility. A thief finds in each paſſenger he encounters on the road a novel ſource of revenue, and one that is inexhauſtible too, until the hand of juſtice overtakes him.]

It is a fact, the evidences of which will one day appear, that the French Directory, little more than a year ſince, offered to the Britiſh Government, to conclude a peace, on condition of their receiving £1,000,000 ſterling for their private purſes—England to retain all her conqueſts, and the iſland of St. Domingo to be ceded to her.

The audacious falſhoods and impoſitions with which the various Republican rulers of France, have abuſed, no leſs their own miſerable ſubjects, than the reſt of mankind, entitles them, independent of every act of plunder and murder, to the unanimous execration of mankind. After vaporing for years againſt the inſolence and tyranny of England, they affect at length to have reſolved on her extirpation—proclaim urgency—decree vengeance—revive the brutal yell of a brutal ancient—order a general maſſacre of Britiſh priſoners of war—and decree that no quarter ſhall in future be given.

Anon, it is concluded upon that England ſhall be invaded, and droves of ſlaves are marched down to the ſea-coaſt, a butcher of the firſt note is appointed to lead them, and rafts built to convey them to the deſtined ſcene of their rapacity.

When, lo! after keeping the deluded populace in monthly expectation of ſeeing England invaded, they diſpatch the whole drove of ſanſculottes, with Buonaparte at their head, to Egypt.

The French revolution has been often compared to the eruption of a Volcano, which it ſeems now to reſemble more completely than ever: Its embers of diſcord and deſtruction, having been diſperſed from the orient to the ſetting ſun, and raged till they have burnt out, the original fire ſtill burns in its crater, with a ſlow, ſteady, ſullen flame.

Were not the effrontery of the French Neroes out of all bounds, they would hardly date, to affect ſenſibility at the death of any man previous to the year 1793.—Their Reſident at Rome one Baſſeville, a low-bred Ruſſian, for ſome pranks he played with citizen mob, got ſtilettoed by him: this they have charged to the Emperor. But ſuppoſe Baſſeville had lived to return to France: Baſſeville would have become a Girondiſt, or a Montagnard, or a Terroriſt, and Baſſeville would have been guillotined. It is the honor of murdering men themſelves, then, that they are ſo jealous of.

It might afford not a little curious ſpeculation to philoſophize on the different ſubſtances of which the Aurora is at different times compoſed, and by analyzing them to aſſign every effect to its legitimate cauſe. Now, the lucubrations of this republican luminary are for the moſt part to be aſſigned to one or other of theſe different moods, viz. Either an horrible malice at want of money to pay for a glaſs of gin; or a ſtate of idiocy from having procured it. In all the diverſifications of the Aurora, the influence of theſe cauſes on Duane's mind may be diſtinctly diſcerned.

The French Mountebanks talk loud and long about RE-ACTION: it is no longer royaliſm, anarchy, or terroriſm, but re-action, re-action, that threatens the foundations of the Republic. May they ſpeedily feel the force of that law of Philoſophy which ſays, that "action and re-action are equal and contrary."

"Well Mr. Fenno, what do you think of the news? The Duke of York has got a drubbing: I declare things look black: Don't you begin to think it was wiſe in this country to pull in her horns?" Thus babbled on a tune-ſerving fool, who, though brainleſs as a bat, and dull as a tortoiſe, thinks himſelf, and perhaps amidſt "the weakneſs of theſe latter times," may be, a great man. Percontatorem fugito, was a good admonition.

America is a young damſel of ſo great allurements, that they ſay the old and corrupt loſels of Europe are all hankering after her—this unhappy Eve is tempted, too, by the green and gilded ſerpent of Democracy, who has well nigh wreathed himſelf around her neck. The Serpent counſels her to inſult them all, and yield herſelf up to him.

It has been ſaid by certain ſapient ſectaries of expediency, that if we have an antiferal Governor, we have at leaſt a Federal majority in the Legiſlature, to check him. It turns out that there is a Jacobin majority in that Body, and it is contemplated, on the ſtrength of it, to elect a compliant Speaker, who is to reſign, to the ſon of Bacchus and Mars: ſo admirably are the cohorts of jacobinism trained and diſciplined.

Though Jaſper certainly ſtands among the moſt deſerved candidates for the gallows, yet the jacobins, true to their cauſe, have reſolved not to let his long ſervices paſs unrewarded, and have ſerious thoughts of ſetting him up as a candidate for Congreſs at the next election. But the daily and increaſing quantity of gin which this fellow exhauſts will probably ere that time preſent a formidable obſtacle in the way of preferment; and he may then be thought a diſgrace even to the republican cauſe.

Mr. Weaver of Greene county, is elected Speaker of the Aſſembly of Pennſylvania.

JEMIMA AND FANNY.

The Jemima and Fanny, of Baltimore, ſtated to have been lately releaſed, after capture by a French privateer, was commiſſioned as the property of JOHN SMITH of Baltimore, and a Mr. Biays or Byas of Fell's Point: Theſe two perſons are ſaid to form a branch of the houſe of which General Smith is the head; and thus, tho' the Jemima and Fanny may have been ſold after her departure to Mr. Magruder, yet the commiſſion ſtill ſtanding in thoſe names, the influence of that houſe may have been the cauſe of her releaſe.

Tueſday, at New York, the ſingular circumſtance occurred of eight different Courts of Juſtice being held on one day in the City Hall. If human laws can perfect the operation of diſtributive and vindictive juſtice, it would ſeem that our citizens have no right to complain for want of the application of them.

The ſubſcriber, maſter of the ſhip Perſeverance of Philadelphia, lately arrived from Batavia, conceives it a duty he owes, as well to the conduct and character of his excellency Gov. Brooke of St. Helena, as to all Americans trading beyond the Cape of Good Hope,—to whom a knowledge of the good treatment they may expect to receive at St. Helena may be of material ſervice.

On our paſſage from Batavia we found it neceſſary to put into St. Helena, and on anchoring in the roads we were boarded by two armed boats from the Belvidere, capt. Chriſtie, and the Earl of Wycombe, capt. Meadoes, Engliſh Eaſt Indiamen, who forcibly took poſſeſſion of the ſhip, under pretence of our having Dutch property on board—In this ſituation the ſupercargo and myſelf determined to apply to the Governor, who, on hearing the evidence on both ſides, ordered the ſhip to be inſtantly reſtored to us, and on repreſenting the matter to the Council of the Iſland, the following Reſolution paſſed, was ſent to me, and is now in my poſſeſſion.

"St. Helena, 23d Sept. 1799.

"Reſolved, That on conſideration of the ſhip Perſeverance having been illegally ſeized in this harbour, and in direct contradiction to the orders of government and the port regulations eſtabliſhed at St. Helena, the captain or ſupercargo be requeſted to draw out a clear ſtatement of any loſs or damage that has been ſuſtained in conſequence of ſaid outrage—that this government may order the amount to be paid, and charged to account of thoſe who committed the ſame."

The commodore (Chriſtie) and ſome of the inferior officers of the two ſhips, were ordered under arreſt, to be ſent to England for trial, for contempt of the governor's authority in ſeizing the Perſeverance under the guns of the forts. Indeed, in every inſtance the ſupercargo and myſelf experienced from the governor the utmoſt politeneſs and hoſpitality, which we believe has been his uniform conduct to all Americans. I have much pleaſure in adding this public teſtimony in his favour, as far as reſpects the caſe of the Perſeverance.

THIS DAY,

General Marſhall, Chairman of the Committee appointed for that purpoſe, reported an anſwer to the Preſident's Speech, which was read, committed to a Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union and made the order of the day for Monday. After which the Houſe adjourned.

NEW YORK, December 5.

[OFFICIAL]

The Frigates Congreſs, capt. Sever, and Eſſex, captain Preble, will proceed from Newport, where they are to rendezvous by the 15th inſt. with whatever veſſels may want convoy, all the way to Batavia. They will leave Batavia in the courſe of the month of May next, to return to the United States.

NEWBERN, November 22.

On Saturday laſt arrived the ſchooner Gull, Captain Brightman, from Anguilla, who has favored us with the particulars of the following important victory:

About the 18th ult. off Point Petre, a battle was fought between the United States brig Pickering, of 14 guns, four pounders and 70 men, and the French privateer ſchr. L'Egypte Conquiſe, of 18 guns, 14 nines and 4 ſizes, and 250 men; in which after an engagement which laſted nine hours, the Frenchman ſtruck and was carried into St. Kitts.

Captain Brightman, with many other Americans, had been previouſly captured by the above privateer; and it appears that ſhe was one of the beſt veſſels belonging to the French in the Weſt Indies. She was completely fitted out, and double manned, on purpoſe to take the Pickering; but not being able to ſtand the fire of American cannon, ſhe was obliged to ſtrike to a force not much more than one third her equal, in number.

The Pickering, a few days before, had a running fight with a French lugger; and Captain B. informs us, that ſhe would have taken her if the Pickering had not ſprung her maſts in the chaſe.

Captain B. alſo brings news that two American armed veſſels and an Engliſh ſchooner, were in purſuit of a French veſſel, and run her ſo cloſe to St. Euſtatia, that the lower fort fired on them. The Americans and Engliſh drove them from their poſts, when they were attacked by the upper fort. In the action ſome of the wadding from the forts fell into the town and ſet it on fire, which conſumed conſiderable part of the place.

BOSTON, November 27.

Yeſterday arrived at Salem, the ſhip Fanny, capt. Boden, 52 days from Bilboa: A paſſenger, belonging to this town, informs us, that letters had been received there from very reſpectable ſources, acquainting, that the king of Pruſſia, in conſequence of overtures made him by the allied powers, had determined to join the coalition againſt France, and had already marched 40,000 men towards Holland, to reinſtate the Stadtholder. This meaſure was deemed of importance in Europe.

ADDRESS

OF THE GUARDIANS OF THE POOR.

TO THE PUBLIC.

FELLOW CITIZENS,

THE exhauſted ſtate of our Treaſury, the enormous arrearages of poor tax, and the accumulated diſtreſſes occaſioned by the repeated calamities with which our city has been afflicted, all conſpire to render an immediate and efficient remedy indiſpenſably neceſſary for the ſupport of the unfortunate objects conſigned to our care.

The remedy we truſt will be the reſult of a candid appeal to your reaſon, juſtice and humanity—we aſk not a boon!—we ſolicit only the prompt payment of a tax of inevitable neceſſity—equitable in its operation, benevolent in its object, and upon the due collection of which, the œconomy and welfare of the inſtitution, ſo eſſentially depend. A deficiency in the collection of the poor tax has ſuperinduced the practice of obtaining loans at Bank, ſupplies on credit and of delaying the purchaſe of wood and other caſh articles until the prices are greatly enhanced, thereby unequally encreaſing the public burthens: Whereas a due collection of the taxes will enable us promptly to meet all our exiſting engagements and purchaſe future ſupplies in due ſeaſon with caſh, to the great ſaving and reputation of the inſtitution.

The unexampled number of helpleſs orphans, which the hand of peſtilence has thrown upon your bounty—the aged, infirm and diſeaſed who look for ſupport and protection from the inclemency of the approaching ſeaſon, earneſtly demand the exalted charity! which you have ſo often and ſo conſpicuouſly diſplayed.

By order of the General Board of Guardians of the Poor.

WM. JONES, Preſident.

MR. M'MILLAN,

I Obſerved in your laſt paper, a piece republiſhed by particular requeſt from the Auguſta Chronicle, reſpecting Mr. Jefferſon, who is called "one of the moſt enlightened and honourable ſtateſman that ever lived." Not having before ſeen any recent obſervations relative to him, I do not know the particular objects of this republican, or why at this period it is wiſhed to bring him before the public, when there is no proſpect of his being in any reſpect a gainer thereby. I believe Mr. Jefferſon is eſteemed fully as much as he ought to be, and has credit for all the good qualities he poſſeſſes;—his talents are generally acknowledged, and his political principles are not at this day to be queſtioned. Why then, this needleſs ſolicitude to prove facts not diſputed, or to attempt to diſprove thoſe which are incontrovertibly eſtabliſhed?

Mr. Jefferſon, while Secretary of State, certainly expreſſed in handſome and correct language, the ſentiments of the Executive of the United States, in his communications with the French miniſters—but could your correſpondent prove what he aſſerts, that "his head and heart compoſed the matter that then he wrote," it would only tend to prove the wavering inconſiſtency of his character, as his "head and heart" have ever ſince evinced different feelings and ſentiments.

As to the extract of the letter to Mr. Morris, the language of it is ſuch as every American muſt acknowledge to have been juſt; and if it be any qualification I will admit (what I do not believe) that it contained Mr. Jefferſon's perſonal feelings in the expreſſions of indignation at the unpardonable effrontery and miſconduct of Mr. Genet, "his groſs uſurpations and outrages of the laws and authority of our country—his endeavours to excite diſcord and diſtruſt between our citizens and thoſe whom they have entruſted with their government, between the different branches of government," and his efforts to induce our citizens to ſhed each other's blood. But it will be obſerved, that the indignation is levelled at an individual only—at Mr. Genet himſelf, and not at the government he repreſented, becauſe it is ſuggeſted, that he acted unadviſedly and without authority. Subſequently, however, to the writing of this letter, it has appeared by unqueſtionable evidence, that Mr. Genet's conduct reſulted from the inſtructions of his government—that he in no reſpect, eſpecially in his own inſolence, departed from their wiſhes: The line he had marked out was followed by his ſucceſſors, has been invariably purſued and continued to the preſent day. How happens it then, that the conduct ſo much cenſured by Mr. Jefferſon, when conſidered as proceeding from individual preſumption and enthuſiaſtic impertinence, ſhould become the object of commendation, or even of excuſe, when known to proceed from the French government? It is intimated that Mr. Jefferſon ſpoke his own ſentiments when cenſuring and condemning the conduct of the French miniſter, Genet—whoſe ſentiments then did he, or does he ſpeak, when commending the ſame kind of conduct in Genet's ſucceſſors? Does this great man act inconſiſtently, or has he been uniformly a Frenchman from the time of his leaving Paris? And did he lay off his American character with his American dreſs? Or, did his apoſtacy commence when he made the important diſcovery, that the conduct he had cenſured in Genet, had the unequivocal ſanction of the great and terrible republic he repreſented?

The literary talents of Mr. Jefferſon being known and acknowledged, his friends would do well to let him reſt with the degree of fame he has acquired—Nothing flattering can be added thereto by further inveſtigating his character.

Just Published,

A COMPENDIOUS SYSTEM

Of Practical Surveying and dividing of land; briefly comprized under the following heads, viz.

TWENTY-THREE Geometrical Definitions, eleven Geometrical Positions, exhibiting to view the properties and dependencies of triangles; followed by problems and examples preparatory to Trigonometry, heights and distances. Then fifteen problems and examples neceſſarily previous to calculating a Survey ſucceeded by ſeven ſurveys, the area of the four firſt is found geometrically, and of the whole number by difference of latitude and departure, ſhewing how to take an inacceſſible boundary, find the bearing and diſtance of the cloſing line without running it, alſo the diſtances to an inacceſſible corner from the two adjacent corners, followed by examples of offſets on to winding ſtreams of water, ſhewing how to aſcertain the area without the trouble of meaſuring the windings with chains and inſtruments—a crooked water courſe ſtraitened, and a quantity of land on each ſide found by thoſe offsets.

Ten examples of dividing land, with many ſub-diviſions, leading into the moſt critical circumſtances that can occur in practice; an example of Interſections, and an example ſhewing how the bearings of a field may be truly taken where the needle is attracted, altho' the attraction may vary in quantity and denomination at every ſtation; examples ſhewing the method of meaſuring by the chain only. All the rules are clear and explicit. This work contains the tables of difference of latitude and departure and of logarithms.

Orders ſent to Joſeph and James Cruckſhank, Bookſellers, No. 87, High-ſtreet, Philadelphia, Bonſall and Niles, 173, Market Street, Baltimore, or the Subſcriber in Wilmington (Del.) will be duly attended to.

Subſcribers will have it at their option, either to ſubſcribe for the whole of the Journals, up to the preſent time, or to thoſe only of the Old Congreſs prior to the organization of the Federal Government.

IN all countries, the proceedings in the commencement of their governments, are loſt in darkneſs and obſcurity, owing to a careleſsneſs, in the ſucceeding generation, to preſerve the public records, and the attention of the nation, in thoſe rude ages, being called off from their domeſtic concerns, to engage in wars and conqueſt. Of what infinite value would the laws of Alfred be, had they been tranſmitted to our days? Time, that deſtroys every thing, enhances the value of well authenticated public records, and renders them almoſt inеſtimable. It is hoped, that Americans will, therefore, chearfully contribute their aſſiſtance in tranſmitting to poſterity the labours of their anceſtors—founders of the Columbian nation.

 The work will certainly be advanced with expedition and promptitude. The following will ſhow the ſupport it has already acquired:

"Reſpectfully ſheweth,

"That having, in our reſpective avocations, frequent occaſions to recur to the Journals of Congreſs, we experience inconvenience by the ſcarcity of them: That we underſtand that Richard Folwell, printer, of Philadelphia, has had it in contemplation to print that public record; and that he hath obtained partial countenance from many individuals; but that he has delayed proſecuting the work, in expectation of encouragement from government, that may adequately indemnify him. We, therefore, reſpectfully ſolicit, as the publication is neceſſary to be diſſeminated among public bodies that Congreſs will, in their wiſdom render him ſuch additional encouragement, to that which he has obtained from private individuals, as to enable him to proceed with the work, ſo that your Memorialiſts may be enabled to purchaſe copies of that record for themſelves.

The Swift-Sure,

A NEW LINE OF STAGES,

NOW RUNNING BETWEEN

PHILADELPHIA & NEW-YORK,

By the ſhort and pleaſant road of Buſtleton, Newtown, Scotch Plains, Springfield and Newark.

THE excellence of this road, the populouſneſs of the country through which it paſſes, with ſundry other advantages, which render it ſo far preferable to the Old Road through Briſtol, Brunſwick, &c. long ago ſuggeſted the propriety of its becoming the Grand Thorough Fare from Philadelphia to New York. During the preſent year, a minute ſurvey of it has been taken, and its ſuperiority over the Old Road, both in winter and ſummer, has been clearly aſcertained.—There are good bridges over all the other waters but the Delaware, and here the croſſing is performed with great ſafety and in leſs than half the time required at the Trenton Ferry. The road is ſeveral miles ſhorter than the old road, but this is amongſt the leaſt of its advantages, becauſe daily experience proves to us, that diſpatch as well as comfort in travelling principally depend on the goodneſs of the road and the levelneſs of the country, and, in theſe reſpects, the New Road is, beyond all compariſon, the beſt. It preſents none of thoſe rocky hills, which render the Old Road ſo fatiguing between the Delaware and Newark. The ſoil, too, for the greater part, is ſuch as to produce but little mud in winter, and very little duſt in ſummer, which circumſtance, added to the beauty of the country, and a conſiderable proportion of ſhade, muſt always render travelling in the latter ſeaſon peculiarly agreeable.

The Swift Sure ſtarts from PHILADELPHIA, at 6 o'clock every morning (Sundays excepted) from the GREEN TREE, oppoſite the Lutheran Church, North Fourth ſtreet. It goes through Frankford to Buſtleton, where it ſtops to Breakfaſt; from Buſtletown it goes through Newtown to Penny-town to dinner; from Penny-town through Hopewell, Millſtone, Bound-brook, Quibbletown and Plainfield to Scotch Plains to lodge. The next morning it ſtops at Springfield to breakfaſt, from whence it goes through Newark and arrives at New-York at noon.

From NEW-YORK it ſtarts at 3 o'clock in the afternoon (from Paulus Hook) and arrives at Philadelphia the next evening. For ſeats at New-York, application may be made to Edward Bardin, Old Coffee houſe, to A. Mathieu, corner of Naſſau and John ſtreets, to B. Many, no. 48, Courtlandt, corner of Greenwich ſtreet, and to Michael Little, at his hotel, no. 42, Broad ſtreet.

Fare for paſſengers, Five Dollars.
Way paſſengers 6 Cents per Mile.

Each paſſenger is allowed to take on 14lbs. of baggage carriage free; but all other baggage, taken on by a paſſenger, will be charged at 4 cents per pound weight.

With reſpect to packages ſent on without paſſengers, the proprietors preſume they have adopted a regulation, which, though unknown to other lines of ſtages, they think muſt meet with general approbation, They pledge themſelves to make good every package on the following conditions. The perſon who delivers the package at the office ſhall ſee it entered in the ſtage-book, for which entry he ſhall pay 6 cents; he will then ſtate the value of the package, and pay (excluſive of the carriage) one per cent. on the value, as inſurance, and for which he will receive a receipt. Thus, for inſtance, if he eſtimates his package at one dollar, he will pay one cent, and if at one hundred dollars, he will pay one dollar inſurance, and in like proportion for packages of any other value.

Very few perſons it is preſumed, will diſlike this regulation; it will however, be optionable with every one to avail himſelf of this ſecurity or not. But the proprietors think it right to ſtate very explicitly, that they will be reſponſible for the ſafe delivery of no package, which is not regularly entered, and for which an inſurance receipt cannot be produced.

In the diſtribution of the route, the greateſt care has been taken to fix on ſuch places and taverns as always afford a good accommodation and entertainment for the paſſengers at the moſt reaſonable rates. The ſtages are well equipped furniſhed with fleet and ſteady horſes, and committed to the care of intelligent ſober and obliging drivers. The proprietors themſelves live at the different towns and villages where the ſtages will ſtop, ſo that the conduct of the perſons they employ is continually an object of their attention.—They take care alſo to ſee that the paſſengers are well provided for and politely treated at the taverns, and that no ſort of chicanery or inſolence is practiſed upon them; in ſhort, they have ſpared neither pains nor expence to render the SWIFT-SURE the very beſt line of ſtages in America.

The line has now run nearly a month, during which time a great number of gentlemen have gone through, both from Philadelphia and New-York. Every paſſenger has found the road to ſurpaſs very far all that has been ſaid of its excellence; and the Proprietors of the Swift Sure are extremely happy to hear the behaviou of their drivers, and the treatment at Taverns ſpoken of with the higheſt ſatisfaction.
